Further information and sources are mentioned below. If you still need help, please contact us at medien@davos.ch. Thank you. We hope you enjoy researching and writing.

Davos Documentation Library

The documentation library is an indispensable aid for researching the history of Davos. It preserves historical knowledge about the development of the Davos landscape. Its holdings include over 20,000 media (manuscripts, books, periodicals, graphics, sound recordings, DVD and video films) that have a connection to Davos. In addition, the DBD has an important photo collection with more than 9,000 photographs. The three most important Davos periodicals (Davoser Blätter, Davoser Revue and Davoser Zeitung) are complete in the collection.

The documentation library is a reference and study library. Photocopies can be made of many documents. Research outside opening hours is possible. The documentation library is open to all residents and guests.

The Davoser Revue

The «Davoser Revue» explores and reflects the history, present and future of Davos and develops new perspectives on the conditions and possibilities of human existence and society itself through specific questions.

The «Davoser Revue» thus distinguishes itself through its local ties and cosmopolitanism at the same time. The thematic issues, which appear four times a year, have local and regional significance and are at the same time of general human relevance.

The orientation

The «Davoser Revue» uniquely combines local and regional history with the big, existential questions. The «Davoser Revue» is thus aimed at people who are as interested in life in its local and temporal context as they are fascinated by life as possibility, design and imagination. Through this humanistic orientation, the «Davoser Revue» refuses to address a specific target group. The «Davoser Revue» simply addresses all people. <https://davoser-revue.ch>

Destination Davos Klosters

Davos Klosters is one of the most famous holiday resorts in the world and boasts the most comprehensive holiday, sports and meeting facilities in the mountains. Although the contrast between urban Davos and idyllic Klosters could not be greater, both villages, which lie only ten minutes drive from each other, have one thing in common: their fascinating and breathtaking mountain backdrop.
