

CHIC CITY NIGHTLIFE IN THE MIDDLE OF THE MOUNTAINS

A relaxing drink after a day on the pistes is twice as nice on a cold winter evening. Elegant lounges, cool clubs and rock venues offer guests the best and most dazzlingly diverse nightlife in the Alps.

From the winter season 2017/18 the «Stall Valär – Restaurant and Bar» is located at the bottom station of the Jakobshorn cable car. Drinks and tasty meals are served in the traditional atmosphere of a former horse stable. The Bolgen Plaza remains a cult place and after the closing at 7 p.m. the crowd moves to the «Chalet Bolgen – After 7» and partys on.

Warm up after a day on the pistes

Après-ski fans will also find the ideal thirst quenchers at the bottom station of Parsenn, the largest ski region in Davos Klosters. The Montana Bar with its art-nouveau interior is a great place to start a night tour through Davos. Those who prefer the valley run to Klosters should head straight for the Gaströchni, where coffee with a wide variety of shots provides a festive atmosphere.

Clubbing and bar hopping for nightlife lovers. The numerous bars and clubs in Davos and Klosters are where people meet after après ski: the lift assistant and the tourist, the congress participant and the ski instructor. The range of locales extends from elegant lounge to crazy rock bar but all have one thing in common: a friendly and informal atmosphere. The Ex-Bar on the Davos Promenade is legendary as the spot where all those not ready for sleep can get together until 5 o'clock in the morning. In Klosters the main action is at the Casa Antica, which boasts 50 years of history as a dance locale.

Casino, cinema, theatre, concerts

As is appropriate for an alpine city like Davos, nightlife offers are not just limited to bars and clubs. At Casino Davos, the James Bond feeling of roulette, blackjack or boclette comes to life. The latest Hollywood movies are shown in the Davos Kino Arkaden. Those who prefer to watch alternative cinema will be in for a treat at the Kulturschuppen Klosters. And last but not least, numerous theatre and concert performances throughout the year enhance the region's cultural offerings.
